Richard,

Thank you for taking my call this morning and for agreeing to provide General Motors LLC ("New GM") with a 21-day extension to respond to the complaint and 30-day extension to respond to the written discovery requests. New GM's local counsel will prepare and file a stipulation to that effect by Monday. Also per our discussion, I am attaching for your convenience copies of New GM's Motion to Enforce, the accompanying Scheduling Order, the Second Supplements referenced in the message below, as well as a couple of recent decisions by the Bankruptcy Court regarding a similar motion to enforce New GM filed with respect to ignition switch actions.

I understood from our conversation that you wanted additional information regarding New GM's assertion that the vehicle at issue in the Watson matter was manufactured and sold by General Motors Corporation ("Old GM"). To that end, as a courtesy I am attaching for your convenience the original vehicle invoice (showing the vehicle was manufactured and sold by Old GM in 2008), which I respectfully request that you treat as confidential.

Thanks,

Allan

We are co-counsel for New GM. On August 1, 2014, New GM filed a motion ("Motion") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York ("Bankruptcy Court") seeking to enforce the Bankruptcy Court's July 5, 2009 Sale Order and Injunction, which among other things, (i) approved a sale of assets from Old GM to New GM, and (ii) enjoins the assertion of certain claims against New GM. On September 15, 2014, the Bankruptcy Court issued a scheduling order ("Scheduling Order") establishing certain procedures for addressing issues raised in the Motion. The Action you filed was made subject to the Motion pursuant to the Second Supplements to Schedules 1 and 2, which New GM filed on October 6, 2014. The Motion seeks to bar some or all of the claims you recently asserted against New GM, in an Action commenced in a non-Bankruptcy Court forum, as being prohibited by the Sale Order and Injunction.

Pursuant to Paragraph 3(a) of the Scheduling Order (p. 3), all Plaintiffs that have filed Actions against New GM have seven (7) calendar days from receipt of a Stay Stipulation to agree to voluntarily stay all proceedings in their Action against New GM (and certain of its affiliates). A copy of the Stay Stipulation for your Action is attached to the Scheduling Order. Please review the Stipulation and, if you agree to its terms, please sign where indicated and e-mail or fax a copy back to each of the following counsel representing New GM within seven (7) calendar days:

1. Arthur Steinberg – email: asteinberg@kslaw.com; facsimile: 212-556-2222; phone: 212-556-2158
2. Scott Davidson – e-mail: sdavidson@kslaw.com; facsimile: 212-556-2222; phone: 212-556-2164
3. Richard Godfrey – e-mail: rgodfrey@kirkland.com; facsimile: 312-862-2200; phone: 312-862-2391

4. Andrew Bloomer – e-mail: abloomer@kirkland.com; facsimile: 312-862-2200; phone: 312-862-2482

If you choose not to enter into a Stipulation, pursuant to Paragraph 3(b) of the Scheduling Order, you are required to file a pleading in the Bankruptcy Court by no later than seven (7) calendar days from service of the Scheduling Order, setting forth why you should not be directed to stay your Action (“No Stay Pleading”). New GM will file a response to the No Stay Pleading within ten (10) calendar days, and the Bankruptcy Court will hold a hearing on a date set by the Bankruptcy Court.

Please be advised that, pursuant to Paragraph 3(d) of the Scheduling Order, if any plaintiff chooses not to (i) execute a Stipulation, or (ii) file a No Stay Pleading, the terms of the Stipulation shall automatically be binding on such Plaintiff.

To the extent you have previously entered into an agreed stay or extension of time in the court where you commenced your Action, those stipulations and extensions of time remain in effect. However, the Bankruptcy Court’s Order supersedes any prior agreement between the parties. You are therefore required to either execute a Stipulation or file a No Stay Pleading irrespective of any prior agreed stay or extension of time.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me or any of the other above-referenced counsel for New GM.

<sup>2</sup> Certain plaintiffs in the Ignition Switch Actions designated the law firms Brown Rudnick, LLP; Caplin & Drysdale, Chartered; and Stutzman, Bromberg, Esserman & Plifka, PC (collectively “Designated Counsel”) to speak on their behalf in connection with the Ignition Switch Motion to Enforce.

the prior proceedings had herein, the Court having issued directives from the bench, which are memorialized in this Order. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that no discovery shall take place with respect to the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce until further order of this Court; and it is further

ORDERED that Plaintiffs in the Monetary Relief Actions are directed to coordinate their efforts in these proceedings (i) with each other to the extent reasonably practicable to avoid repetition and duplicative arguments, and (ii) with Designated Counsel to the extent reasonably practicable to avoid repetition and duplicative arguments being made in connection with the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce and the Ignition Switch Motion to Enforce; and it is further

ORDERED that Wilmington Trust Company (“WTC”), as the GUC Trust Administrator, and the Unitholders, subject to WTC and such Unitholders coordinating their efforts in these proceedings to the extent reasonably practicable, shall be considered parties in interest in the contested matter concerning the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce, and shall have standing to appear and be heard on all issues regarding the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce. WTC and the Unitholders, subject to the coordination of efforts as discussed above, shall be permitted to participate in any discovery that may later be authorized by the Court; and it is further ORDERED that the following initial case schedule and procedures shall apply to the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce:

1. Until further order of the Court, the schedule governing New GM’s Ignition Switch Motion to Enforce (which is subject to various Orders previously entered by the Court, copies of which shall be provided by New GM to Plaintiffs upon written request) shall govern the schedule for the Monetary Relief Motion to Enforce.

2. For the avoidance of doubt, the entry of this Order is without prejudice to any party or party-in-interest filing a motion with the Court to modify or supplement any of the terms of this Order, for good cause shown.
3. (a) Plaintiffs in each of the Monetary Relief Actions shall be given seven (7) calendar days from service of this Scheduling Order to enter into voluntary stipulations (“Stay Stipulation”)<sup>3</sup> with New GM staying all proceedings in their individual Actions against New GM. New GM shall provide to each Plaintiff a Stay Stipulation that conforms to their individual Actions.

(b) If a Plaintiff chooses not to enter into a Stay Stipulation, it shall be required to file a pleading in this Court by no later than seven (7) calendar days from service of this Scheduling Order upon it setting forth why it should not be directed to stay its individual Action (“No Stay Pleading”). New GM will file a response to the No Stay Pleading within ten (10) calendar days of service of the No Stay Pleading, and the Court shall hold a hearing thereafter on a date set by the Court. Nothing set forth in this Order shall change the burden of proof as to whether there has been a violation of the Sale Order and Injunction by Plaintiffs who do not enter into a Stay Stipulation.

(c) Plaintiffs in any Monetary Relief Action commenced after the filing of the notice of settlement of this Scheduling Order shall have seven (7) calendar days from receipt of a Stay Stipulation from counsel to New GM to (i) enter into a Stay Stipulation by executing same and returning it to New GM’s counsel, or (ii) file a No Stay Pleading with the Court. If a No Stay Pleading is filed by a plaintiff, New GM will file a response to the No Stay Pleading within ten (10) calendar days of service of the No Stay Pleading, and the Court shall hold a hearing on any such No Stay Pleading on a date to be set by the Court.

(d) If a plaintiff in any Monetary Relief Action fails to either timely enter into a Stay Stipulation with New GM or timely file a No Stay Pleading with the Court within the time period set forth above, the terms of the Stay Stipulation shall automatically be binding on such plaintiff.

(e) For the avoidance of any doubt, the entry of any Stay Stipulation by a Plaintiff in any Monetary Relief Action shall not impair in any way the filing and scope of an amended and consolidated complaint in the MDL proceeding, In re: General Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litigation, 14-MD-2543 (JMF); and

EXHIBIT A

[CAPTION OF ACTION]

WHEREAS, the above-referenced plaintiff(s) (“Plaintiff(s)”) commenced this action (“Action”) against General Motors LLC (“New GM”), asserting claims against New GM all as more particularly described in the complaint filed in the Action;

WHEREAS, on August 1, 2014, New GM filed the Motion Of General Motors LLC Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 And 363 To Enforce The Court’s July 5, 2009 Sale Order And Injunction (Monetary Relief Actions, Other Than Ignition Switch Actions) (“Motion to Enforce”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (“Bankruptcy Court”) asserting, inter alia, that (i) the Action violates the Order of the Bankruptcy Court, dated July 5, 2009 (“Sale Order and Injunction”) approving the sale of substantially all of the assets from General Motors Corp. (n/k/a Motors Liquidation Company) (“Old GM”) to New GM, and the injunction contained therein, and (ii) the Bankruptcy Court has exclusive jurisdiction to interpret and enforce the Sale Order and Injunction;

WHEREAS, by Order of the Bankruptcy Court dated _____, 2014 (“Scheduling Order”), the Bankruptcy Court established certain procedures to address the issues raised in the Motion to Enforce. One of the procedures set forth in the Scheduling Order provides that the Plaintiff(s) shall be given a specific period of time to enter into voluntary stipulations with New GM<sup>1</sup> for a stay of all proceedings in this Action against New GM; and

WHEREAS, subject to the terms hereof, and any further order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Plaintiff(s) have agreed to voluntarily stay this Action pending a resolution by the Bankruptcy Court of the issues raised in the Motion to Enforce or as otherwise set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the Plaintiff(s) and New GM (collectively, the “Parties”), as follows:

1. The Parties have agreed to enter into this Stipulation to stay the Action against New GM, and that Plaintiff(s), subject to further order of the Bankruptcy Court, shall not seek to further prosecute this Action during the “Interval” against New GM. For purposes hereof, (a) the “Interval” shall commence on the date of this Stipulation and shall end 30 days after a Final Order(s) is entered resolving all issues raised in the Motion to Enforce, and (b) “Final Order” shall mean the entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court, and the time period to file an appeal of such order has expired.

2. The Parties agree that this Stipulation terminates when, and to the extent that, the Bankruptcy Court grants relief from the stay of this Action as set forth in this Stipulation; provided, however, if a plaintiff in a different Monetary Relief Action (as defined in the Motion to Enforce) obtains a ruling from the Bankruptcy Court which permits that plaintiff to go forward in its Monetary Relief Action, the Plaintiff who signed this Stipulation reserves the right to promptly seek the same relief from the Bankruptcy Court as it applies to this Action if the same factual and/or legal predicate on which the other plaintiff obtained relief applies to the Plaintiff in this Action as it did to the plaintiff in the other Monetary Relief Action who obtained such relief.

3. To the extent Plaintiff's Monetary Relief Action is consolidated with, administered together with, or administered in conjunction with, the proceedings in In re General Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litigation, MDL 2543, currently pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “MDL Court”), the Parties agree that this Stipulation shall not interfere with hearings or procedures otherwise scheduled by the MDL Court. Except as otherwise ordered or permitted by the MDL Court or the Bankruptcy Court, Plaintiff agrees that it will continue to abide by this Stipulation in the MDL Court during the Interval, including by not initiating any motion practice with respect to this Action; provided, however, nothing in this Stipulation prevents or should be construed to prevent the MDL Court from taking (or permitting) such actions as that Court deems fit or appropriate.

4. The Parties each agree to execute such documents as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the terms of this Stipulation, including but not limited to any documents required by any other court to effectuate the implementation of this Stipulation.

5. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises with respect to this Stipulation, this Stipulation shall be construed as if drafted by all Parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Stipulation.

6. This Stipulation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

7. This Stipulation constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties regarding the subject matter herein, and supersedes any Party's promises to or agreements with any other Party with respect to the subject matter herein. No waiver or modification of any term or condition contained herein shall be valid or binding unless in writing and executed by the Parties hereto.

8. Nothing set forth herein is intended to modify the terms of the Scheduling Order. If there are any inconsistencies or conflicts between the terms of this Stipulation and the terms of the Scheduling Order, the terms of the Scheduling Order shall control.

9. This Stipulation may, but is not required to, be filed by either Party in the Action and in the Bankruptcy Court.

10. This Stipulation may be executed in counterparts, any of which may be transmitted by facsimile or e-mail transmission, and each of which shall be deemed an original.
